Governor and Mike(s):

Late yesterday evening the Board of Game approved a predator control program for the South Alaska Peninsula Caribou Herd which will entail the use of helicopter access by state employees to control wolf predation of newly-born calves on the calving grounds. A draft, but likely to be issued soon, news release (SAP NR) is attached for your information. Also attached is the regulatory package approved by the Board of Game.

This will likely hit the press this afternoon.

Marilyn and her sister are headed to JNU tomorrow evening to finish up the project sunday. They'll be working in the basement of the house. They are fine staying at a hotel (which she also told me on phone) but the question has risen about staying at the house. I can tell them you're out of town and recommend hotel, especially since it is so late, but thought I better check.

I just called into his show while I'm here in fairbanks (pls note that on schedule Janice, after my 2:40-3:40 BOG meeting), and our once extremely supporter radio host was less than enthusiastic this time. He said he's been trying for four months to get me booked for his show as a call-in and all he's gotten is the "run around" he said. So... He's going to personally email me concerns and requests and is asking that I book time next week. He wasnt a happy camper - I told him we'd try harder and I was certainly willing to communicate better with him and his audience.

Despite multiple advance contacts (both Janice and myself spoke to Dick Brickley) Ice Alaska has run radio and newspaper ads (today) to say that Governor Palin and family would participate in the March 8 lighting ceremony.

I have spoken to Dick and he is very aware I am unhappy. He has pulled radio ads and cancelled news-miner ad, and has apologized profusely.

Commissioner Bishop will be at the awards ceremony .

Okay. I was very clear and told Cliff that you might but it was not definite. They do not expect you for an hour; that was the time they gave me as optimal for a stop-by.

Sharon said you agreed to do the documentary, so if there is no objection; I'll proceed with scheduling that for approximately 3pm at the Ice Park. I assume Sharon will take care of Daily News Miner.

I have a folder with maps, program, etc. for tomorrow. Most of it was for ease and convenience. There is no expectation for speech, only a "Welcome to Alaska", at the reception.

Sharon, yep- it was our second movie we've seen together in the last four years. After all the Iditarod events on Saturday we dropped off Piper at Sarah's sister's house because we had two hours before we attended the Spenard town hall meeting (hollis and lyndsey holmes and mike doogan invited us) so we went to see Juno. Then we spent and hour and a half with the legislators and their consituents at the spenard rec center. I'm glad the ear asked about this because Sarah's happy to get to tell her that she and I spent all that time with the legislators who invited us to meet at spenard rec. It was great being there.

As I said, I was quite impressed after reading and hearing about you as a person and as a politician. I put down "Mr." as the prefix of my name, even though I'm fourteen years old. Nevermind that. This night, I heard from my parents that when you gave birth in Wasilla to your third son, you delivered on Monday, and on Tuesday you were back in the office. I recognize that as a major sign of ultimate integrity. Which makes me want to say, "YOU ROCK!" And so I think you ought to run for president. I think that you would do a great job at stopping inflation, and even reversing it, and get our American Dollar back its value. I think that you will help get our slowing economy back on its feet and running again. SO. That's what I think.

Sincerely,

Christian R. McWorkman

You are an inspiration and a breath of fresh air after Gov. Murkowski. Congratulations on the baby. It makes us love you all the more. Do not back down on the budget. Perhaps you will be able to show the legislature that not every dime must be spent. Don't let the oil companies bully us, stay the course.

Thank you for all you do.

Nice job governor! Despite the critics, namely halcro, mat-maid closes its books with money in the bank and there's still equipment and facilities to sell. Alaskans should know YOUR decision to put a new board in place, 600.0 to help w the transition, essentially granting an extention to the livelihood of farmers after the previous mngmnt and bd decided to abruptly close the doors, etc. Perhaps you have somebody working on this, if not I'm happy to send a draft to sharon. Kris, I'm sure, could get some good comments from kristan and joey, etc.
